

DWARF SOUR CHERRIES

FRUIT						PLANT
Cultivar	Fruit Size	Characteristics	Uses	Harvest Period	Fruit Production	Height	Vigor*	Suckering	Spacing
Carmine Jewel	3.5g	Small round pit, high flesh to pit ratio. Unique dark purple skin & flesh Brix17	Processing & Fresh Eating	Early Late July to early August	Will start in 3-5yrs, peak production at 7yrs.	2m	High	Low	In Row /Between Row 5-7ft      12-18ft
Crimson Passion	6g	Firm flesh, easy to remove pits. Dark red Brix 22	Processing & Fresh Eating	Mid – early to mid-August		1.75m	Low to medium	Low
Cupid	6.5g	Largest fruit, latest of the cherries. Dark red to black Brix 19	Processing & Fresh Eating	Late – late August to early September		2m	Medium	Low
Juliet	5g	Easy to remove pits. Dark red Brix 20	Processing & Fresh Eating	Mid – early to mid-August		2m	Medium	Low
Romeo	4g	Very productive, may show some winter damage during productive year. Dark red to black Brix 22	Processing & Fresh Eating	Late – late August to early September		2m	High	Low
Valentine	4.5g	Very productive, very tart. Medium red Brix 15	Processing	Mid – early to mid-August		2.5m	High	Medium

* Vigor refers to the degree of vegetative growth

** Brix is a measurement of sugar relative to the total volume, measured in degrees.

5110-55 Ave ▪ Bonnyville ▪ Alberta ▪ Canada
(866) 977-8733 Toll Free ▪ www.prairietechpropagation.com